Advisors' Reports

Monroe: Distributing funds and voting election

Main Motions

President Bonds asks who is sending the election email how should we move forward in the process?

Parliamentarian Brooks mentions that the election committee has not responded

An alternative plan has been set up so that if the election committee falters then the executive board members who are not running can take over the responsibilities.

Monroe recommends designing graphics to encourage the election process and voting.

Secretary Peebles mentions the website has not been updated and its advisor has not been responding to their emails
